HAMPTON FALLS, New Hampshire—Guardian Angel Senior Services, a privately-owned homecare company, has opened a new location in Hampton Falls, New Hampshire, to extend their service area to the New Hampshire Seacoast community.

JoAnn Thibault, regional manager for New Hampshire, cut the ribbon to officially open the new location. Also representing Guardian Angel Senior Services were Anne Marie Brightman, chief operating officer; Monique Gomez, homecare manager; Giselle Guyotte, scheduling coordinator; and Linda Townsend, hiring coordinator.

The event was supported by the Hampton Area Chamber of Commerce with President John Nyhan, Assistant to the President Gianna Anzalone and Director of Membership Sarah Brais in attendance.

"We were excited to share this meaningful milestone with everyone who attended," said Thibault. "Connection and community are incredibly powerful. We appreciate the support of the Chamber of Commerce and look forward to expanding the role of Guardian Angel Senior Services as part of the Hampton community."

Guardian Angel Senior Services provides in-home care to clients in Massachusetts and New Hampshire. To further their mission of making quality care accessible throughout the communities they serve, Guardian Angel Senior Services now accepts private payments, long-term care insurance, veteran affairs benefits and Choices for Independence Medicaid.
